

John Jacobsen Services Today

Services for John Jacobsen, 69, of 19320 Entradero, Torrance, will be conducted today at 1 p.m. in the Colonial Chapel of the Hardin and Flanagan Mortuary. Jacobsen, a retired electrician for the Douglas Aircraft Co., died Tuesday in his home. Born in Nebraska City, Neb., he came to Inglewood in 1920, and moved to Torrance four years ago. Survivors are a son, Don, and a grandchild, Kandi Sue of Torrance.

Interment for the member of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers will be in Inglewood Park Cemetery.

North High Slates Real Estate Class

Real estate course will be offered in Torrance this fall by University of California Extension, leading to a certificate in real estate for real estate brokers, salesmen and others working in related fields.

The certificate program, given in 18 southern California communities, is approved by the California Real Estate Association and is designed to offer an opportunity to keep abreast of economic trends and legislation affecting real estate transactions.

Two courses will be held at Torrance's North High School, with sessions from 7 to 9:30 p.m. Beginning Sept. 22, Joseph Chase will instruct 12 meetings of a class in Real Estate Practice, and starting Sept. 24, Irving D. Shapiro will instruct 18 meetings of a class in Trends and Factors Influencing Real Estate.

Registration forms and class bulletins may be obtained from University of California Extension offices at UCLA.

Local Home Featured in New Zealand

Grandview Palos Verdes' "Mandalay Bay" model will be featured in a U.S. Information Agency exhibition to be shown throughout New Zealand. William C. Kulow, sales director of the Palos Verdes peninsula community, reported yesterday.

The model was chosen for exhibition by means of exterior and interior views and floor plans, as a result of the award received by the Edward K. Zuckerman-Barney R. Morris home in the American Builder's 1958 Best Model Homes Contest.

Priced from $23,200 to $38,500, the three and four-bedroom and family room, two-bath homes—with up to 1813 sq. ft. of interior living area—having been selling rapidly, according to Kulow.

45 Designs
Contemporary, farmhouse, and traditional styling, in 45 designs created by Architects Harris, Rice & Campbell, A.I.A., are offered in 12 floor plans. Ten furnished model homes may be seen daily from 10 a.m. at 27781 Hawthorne Blvd., off Silver Spur Rd. Qualified veterans may obtain homes on terms from no down payment—costs and impounds accepted. Down payments for non-vets are from $2,350 plus costs and impounds.

Legion Post Announces Saturday Dance

Bert Crossland Post 170 of the American Legion will sponsor a free dance Saturday evening at 9 p.m. at the Legion hall.

Prizes will be awarded the best couple dancing the specified dance of the evening. Music will be provided by the Mel Coates band.

Commander Ed Loehnis announces that the Post has begun its annual membership drive. Prospective members are invited to call at the Post for application.

Last Saturday's dance closing the baseball season was sponsored by the Legion's Jr. League baseball team, Manager Ozzie Grimes and staff in charge.

Most of the debris made by the vandals who looted the hall last Tuesday night has been cleared away and necessary repairs made. Several members of the Post volunteered their services and spent the day Saturday erasing the havoc that was caused.
